

Chinese Courses – General Course Description

Course description:

Within the frame of the Chinese courses as a foreign language students study the target language every week in two 90-minute sessions per week. During in class activities emphasis is given to develop skills connected to grammar and verbal abilities and their balance, as well as maintaining the already acquired knowledge.

The language of education is English, therefore a strong intermediate level of English is necessary to take part in these courses.

Requirements:

The students write a short test at the beginning of each class. During the term they take two bigger tests to measure the knowledge they have acquired. Students are evaluated based on their short tests and the two bigger tests. The exam test consists of two parts, a written and an oral section and has a significant weight in the grade received at the end of the course. The final exam is administered in the last class.

Missing classes:

Participants cannot miss more than 3 classes without a valid doctor's certificate.
