

Fire, Earth, Air, Water

| For K |

With the colour of flowers,
I pen this with the core of my heart.

With only you in my dreams,
I wake up in thy memories...
In your thoughts dives my mind,
The paths of our lives, inter-twined.

Fire, Earth, Air, Water

Our love so pure.
For many lives we be together,
I promise, I'm certain, sure...

Intoxicating, insane, symphony divine,
The madness of our love...
No matter how strong the storm maybe,
Loving, laughing, together we always be!

The warmth of your embrace,
Violin in my heart, orchestra plays...
The sweetness of your love, the honeyed kiss,
Epic romance, now you know, is this?

The journey be long or short,
Path be desolate or be a festive sojourn...
Missing you, I cry, turn lonely,
Amidst a thousand crowds!

Facing the winds, the rising tide...
The world laughs at me, my love; its might!
Portrait of yours, etched indelibly in,
I come, crossing hurdles through;
With nothing but my heart, to give to you...

Promise me, you be always mine,
On us, His blessings will never shade its shine...

Fire, Earth, Air, Water
Our Love, so pure!
For many lives, we be together,
I promise, am certain, sure...
